In many countries around our world there are clowns quietly working their big hearts out in community service -- clowns working to uplift the environments of hospitals, nursing homes, schools, and community outreach programs.

- ♥ We want to share our work, so we can expand and grow and encompass the world with our JOY.
- ♥ The Newsletter contains: inspirations, experiences, stories, props, routines, and articles related to caring clowns and their compassionate work.
- ♥ We are not aligned with any sect, religion or politics. Our purpose is to be a vehicle to share our ideas, hopes, failures and miracles. We recognize the diversity of the clown community and realize that there are as many ways to be a caring clown as there are clown characters.

Life is a spiritual journey. I will share with you what comes across my path and I would hope that you will do the same. The stories we share are our hope and inspiration. Our shares are the footpaths of our journey. We need to tell our stories. They are for us, the heart to heart connection, the bond of spirit, the rise of consciousness, the merging into the universe. When we share our stories with others, we share the flame of our love.
